

Tukwila, WA; September 27, 2011:

Have a Warm Winter

The Samuel Smith's Selection Box holds three benchmarks: Oatmeal Stout, India Ale, Nut Brown Ale, an authentic logo pint glass and two coasters.

The Lindemans Gift Box contains a bottle of Lindemans Framboise raspberry lambic, a Pomme apple lambic, and a beautiful stemmed glass, in a deep red die-cut box.

Ayinger Weizen-Bock: astonishingly good strong wheat ale - balanced, smooth, full body from wheat malt; refined, spicy finish. A rare Bavarian specialty. Third annual release!

Look for them starting in October

Merchant du Vin imports Samuel Smith from England; Traquair House from Scotland; Ayinger & the organic beers of Pinkus from Germany; and Zatec from the Czech Republic. Our offerings from Belgium include Lindemans lambics and Green's gluten-free ales as well as the Trappist breweries of Orval, Westmalle, and Rochefort.
